3. Payment Terms

Payment is due upon delivery unless credit terms have been agreed upon. We provide invoices electronically or in print, accommodating your preference for record-keeping.

4. Delivery

We deliver directly to your site or specified location. Our delivery schedule is contingent upon prompt payment and may be adjusted in the event of outstanding balances. We reserve the right to suspend delivery in cases of force majeure or unforeseen industry-specific delays.

5. Inspection and Acceptance

Upon delivery, you have the right to inspect the goods. Any discrepancies must be reported within 24 hours. Installation signifies acceptance, after which claims related to the condition of goods may not be entertained.

6. Cancellation and Restocking

Should you cancel an accepted quote or project, we may charge a restocking fee for materials already procured and costs incurred in preparation for the work.

7. Default and Consequences

Late payments incur interest and make all outstanding balances due immediately. We reserve the right to recover any costs associated with the collection of overdue payments.

8. Ownership and Risk

Risk passes to you upon delivery, but ownership remains with us until full payment is received. We may reclaim goods or proceeds from goods if payment is not made in full.

9. Warranties and Limitations

We stand by the quality of our work, offering warranties specific to the products and services we provide. Our liability is limited to repair, replacement, or the value of the services rendered.

10. Claims and Disputes

Claims for defects not apparent upon initial inspection must be made within a specified period. We aim for amicable dispute resolution and will engage with you to find fair solutions.

11. Changes in Terms

We may update these terms to reflect changes in our business or legal landscape. We will notify you of significant changes in a timely manner.
